

MEDITATIONS

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer. - Psa 19:14

READY TO SERVE

As a member of the body of Christ, I've learned a few things along the way that you may find interesting. This walk with Jesus Christ is a fascinating journey that is best shared with friends.

The articles presented on this site are just a small token of the enormity of God in my life. He has taken me through many tests, trials, struggles, pains, heartaches, and tribulations. However, I've found him to be true to his word. "I will never leave you nor forsake you".

Please feel free to contact me if you need a prayer partner, a friend to speak with, or you just want to say hello.

Don't Believe the Hype!

Bling, bling, bling

You can't seem to walk down the street without noticing the lifestyles of the rich and famous. They will have on the latest in fashion apparel; the Nike Jordan's retro edition, skinny jeans and a coordinated color top. Some may even drive fancy cars; you know the ride with the blended two-tone custom paint job with a ting of pearl gleaming from the summer sun. Oh yeah, don't forget about the 23 inch chrome wheels with low profile tires that just scrapes the bottom of the body frame. All while listening to a 900 watt 9.2 stereo surround sound car system complete with lights! Sweet things must be happening.

If we take a closer look into the lives of these people you may find a completely different image. You may find hurt, pain, and bitterness due to the toils that come with living. You may find fear, agony, or intense stress due to the choices that were made that continues to haunt them day and night. This person appears to be working

Message for the Month

Are you tired of feeling hurt by what others do to you? Do you feel the weight of life pressing you down? Cheer up my friends, because God loves you and he cares for you. God has created a plan of salvation that addresses all that life has to bring to your table. Follow the instructions that he has laid out in the bible; apply what you know to your life and live long. Jesus says, “Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls.”

through their challenges one day at a time. Although using methods that are not biblically sound. The believer may look on the outward appearance of this group and think that all is well with this person.

David writes in the Psalm, “but as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well-nigh slipped. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.” He continues in the latter part of the same verse, “until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood their end; thou didst set them in slippery places.” David recognizes the hype of what was going on around him, which was the prosperous lifestyle of those without God. Those without God turn to solutions that are material and many times do not address the essence of the problem. We can begin to resolve that using non-biblical solutions to our problems will result in more trouble. When we begin to try Jesus solutions to daily challenges we find that it breeds success in a peaceful manner.
